How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.
One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".
In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

CLIML has rated the volatility of this fund as medium.
This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how A Series securities of the fund have performed over the past 4 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce returns.
The performance of W Series securities would be similar to the performance A Series securities, but would vary as a result of the difference in the combined management and administration fees compared to A Series as disclosed in the fee decrease table under "Fund expenses" below.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell A Series and W Series securities of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds.

Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

We provide eligible investors with combined management and administration fee decreases on their eligible Canada Life fund investments, as disclosed under the sub-heading "Fund expenses". We will automatically switch your A Series securities into W Series securities of the fund (bearing lower combined management and administration fees) upon your investment amount in eligible Canada Life funds meeting the W Series eligibility requirements of $100,000 minimum series investment and $500,000 minimum total holdings. If you or your eligible accounts, as applicable, no longer meet the requirements to be eligible for W Series, we may switch your securities into A series, which has higher combined management and administration fees than W Series. See "Fees and Expenses" in the fund's simplified prospectus and speak to your representative for additional details.

	Annual rate (as a % of the fund's value)

Fee	What you pay
Switch fees	If you switch between series of the fund or to another fund within the Canada Life Mutual Funds, then you may pay your representative's firm a switch fee of 0-2%.
Inappropriate short-term trading fee	A fee of 2% of the amount switched or redeemed will be charged by the fund for inappropriate short-term trading.
Excessive short-term trading fee	A fee of 1% of the amount switched or redeemed will be charged by the fund if you invest in the fund for less than 30 days and your trading is part of a pattern of short-term trading that CLIML believes is detrimental to fund investors.

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice that your representative and their firm provide to you.

CLIML pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

- Sales charge purchase option - 1.00% of the value of your investment each year ($10.00 per year for every $1,000 invested).
- Redemption charge purchase option - 0.50% of the value of your investment for years 1-7, and 0.50% for each year after that ($5.00 per year for every $1,000 invested).
- Low-load purchase option - 0.50% of the value of your investment for years 1-3, and 1.00% for each year after that ($5.00 to $10.00 per year for every $1,000 invested).
